Thursday, May 17, 2007

Mr. CUELLAR. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Mr. Mike Allen, the former President and CEO of the McAllen Economic Development Corporation (MEDC) for his exemplary leadership in fostering the economic growth of the City of McAllen in South Texas.

Mr. Allen was responsible for the management of the McAllen Foreign Trade Zone, one of the largest inland ports in the United States responsible for over one billion dollars worth in commerce annually. He is currently on the Board of Regents for South Texas College and chairman of the Texas Border Infrastructure Coalition (TBIC), which was formed to develop and advocate for solutions to economic development needs along the Texas-Mexico border.

Mr. Allen is an active member of the community. He is a member of numerous organizations such as the American Economic Development Council, Texas Border Infrastructure Coalition, Mexican Chamber of Commerce, American Chamber of Commerce, Reynosa Maquila Association, Texas Good Roads and Transportation Association, McAllen Citizens League, and Rio Grande Valley Chamber of Commerce. In addition, he has served as a member of the Texas Governor's Task Force on Management and Labor Relations for five years. Recently, he attended Presidential and Vice-Presidential briefings on the North American Free Trade Agreement and was actively involved in the Empowerment Zone designation process for the Rio Grande Valley. His vast knowledge of the economic development issues along the U.S.-Mexico border region has led to the continuous economic growth of my district. Mr. Allen has spent his life working to help better the lives of those in his community, and I commend him for his commitment to the economic development of South Texas and to improving our economic relations with Mexico.

LOCAL FOOD AND FARM ACT

HON. EARL BLUMENAUER

OF OREGON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 17, 2007

Mr. BLUMENAUER. Madam Speaker, this year we have an opportunity to reform our nation's farm policies, and a fundamental element of my vision to do this is the Local Food and Farm Act. By increasing the availability of fresh foods in cities, schools, and underserved communities, my bill not only strengthens market opportunities for local farmers and ranchers, but it also protects the environment and gets healthy food into our communities.

This legislation, which I am introducing today with Reps. NANCY BOYDA, STEVE KAGEN, KIRSTEN GILLIBRAND, BOBBY RUSH, DONALD PAYNE, JAN SCHAKOWSKY, TOM ALLEN, strengthens and expands existing programs that support value-added agriculture and farmers markets, promote the availability and affordability of healthy and fresh foods, increase fruits and vegetables in school meals, and remove barriers that keep local farmers from selling products into schools. It also establishes a new program to provide innovative financing for the processing and distribution businesses that create local jobs and are best-suited to help innovative, small and mid-sized farmers and ranchers take advantage of local and regional markets.

Increasing the availability of healthy and fresh foods in our communities is critical to improving the overall health and food security of the United States. By growing and distributing some of these foods locally and regionally, we can create profitable markets for many small and mid-sized family farmers and ranchers, help to preserve farmland, and protect the environment with reduced transportation costs and more sustainable farming practices.

IN HONOR OF EUNICE LASTINGER MIXON

HON. JIM MARSHALL

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 17, 2007

Mr. MARSHALL. Madam Speaker, it is with great pleasure I rise today to honor Eunice Lastinger Mixon for her continuing contributions to the City of Tift, Tift County and the State of Georgia. Those accomplishments will be celebrated today with the establishment of the Eunice Lastinger Mixon Scholarship at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College.

Mrs. Mixon is affectionately known by her friends and colleagues as "Miss Eunice" and has spent her life in service to others. She has been described as a "joiner" and her many hours of service in a wide range of organizations justifies that description.

In addition to the 30 years "Miss Eunice" spent teaching in the Tift County schools and helping her husband, Albert Mixon, run their farm, she also served with the Georgia Civil War Commission, including an appointment as chairman, served on the Board of Directors for the Tift County Library and was one of only a handful of non-attorneys to hold an appointment with the Georgia State Bar Association.

Ms. Eunice continues to make innumerable contributions to the community through her service on the Georgia Student Finance Commission, the Georgia Agrirama Foundation Board, the Democratic Party State Committee and the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Miss Eunice's presence fills whatever room she enters or whatever group she joins. She cares deeply and passionately for others, particularly the least among us. Few Americans have provided a better example of service to others.

Madam Speaker, I am confident my colleagues will join me in recognizing the accomplishments of this great Georgian and great American.

Mr. ARCURI. Madam Speaker, I would like to pay tribute to the extraordinary musical career of Al Gallodoro of Oneonta, New York, and take part in the celebration of his 94th birthday on June 23, 2007. A master of the saxophone and clarinet, Mr. Gallodoro has impressed audiences all over the world for decades.

Mr. Gallodoro began playing the clarinet at the age of 7 and entered the music business at the young age of 13. He spent the next 40 years of his career performing with a well-known jazz musician, Paul Whiteman, playing alto saxophone, clarinet, and bass clarinet. Mr. Gallodoro was also a soloist for live broadcasts, performing more on-air solos during his career than any other performer.

Mr. Gallodoro has traveled all over the world to perform, and holds the world's record for performing the Rhapsody in Blue, playing the piece over 10,000 times throughout the 1930s and 1940s. Additionally, in 2005, Mr. Gallodoro received an Honorary Doctoral Degree from Hartwick College, which recognized a lifetime of extraordinary achievement in music performance and teaching.

After moving to Oneonta in 1981, he has become an active entertainer in our community. Mr. Gallodoro performs each month at Oneonta's very own live music venue, the Sego Café. He is notably one of only thirteen artists who began recording before 1940 that is actively recording today.

Mr. Gallodoro has undoubtedly made an unforgettable impact on the music community and will always be remembered for his invaluable contributions to the field of music. I do not doubt that his 94th birthday celebration at the Sego Café in Oneonta will be one to remember.

IN PRAISE OF ARMY PFC DANIEL COURNEYA

HON. TIMOTHY WALBERG

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 17, 2007

Mr. WALBERG. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor and praise Army PFC Daniel Courneya, a constituent of mine who died while serving his country in Iraq; PFC Courneya's convoy was ambushed in Iraq on May 12, 2007.

PFC Courneya of Vermontville was 19 years old. He grew up dreaming of serving in the military. Daniel grew up wishing to carry on the legacy of service to our great Nation which has run through his family. He grew up with the heart of a hero. Enlisting in the United States Army at 17 years old during his senior year of high school, his mother had to sign a waiver to allow her son to enlist.

As a student at Maple Valley High School, Daniel was well known and well respected. Daniel ran track at Maple Valley, played on the soccer team and played the clarinet in the school band.

In Vermontville, the members of the community hold parades to welcome home returning members of the military and have done so to honor PFC Courneya. What impresses me the most is the way the community has rallied around Daniel's family and provided caring support during this time of grieving.

My thoughts and prayers are with Daniel's family. I thank them for their beloved sons' dedicated service to the United States. May God be with them.

IN SUPPORT OF ONCOLOGY NURSES

HON. MICHAEL R. McNULTY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 17, 2007

Mr. McNULTY. Madam Speaker, I rise today to call attention to the important and essential role that oncology nurses play in providing quality cancer care and to recognize May as Oncology Nursing Month.

Oncology nurses are the health professionals involved in the administration and monitoring of chemotherapy and managing the associated side-effects patients may experience. Every day oncology nurses see the pain and suffering caused by cancer and understand the physical, emotional and financial challenges that people with cancer face throughout their diagnosis and treatment.

Since 1975, the Oncology Nursing Society (ONS) has been dedicated to excellence in patient care, teaching, research, administration and education in the field of oncology. The Society's mission is to promote excellence in oncology nursing and quality cancer care. I am pleased that ONS has 13 chapters throughout New York State which support oncology nurses in their efforts to provide high quality cancer care to patients and their families.

I urge my colleagues to support ONS in its important endeavors and to recognize the oncology nurses in their communities for all they do for people with cancer.
